Interviews

12th & Haskell Bargain Center: Robert Killough, 785-979-7001 (08/27/13 & 09/23/13 by Lisa Larsen)

See end of section for the Environmental Site Assessment Questionnaire.

- Has owned for 10 years.
- Used facility for salvage and recycling.
- No storage tanks.
- Previous salvage facility drained fluids north of the creek (previous property owner also owned the land currently owned by City of Lawrence to the north and west of the subject property)
- No value reduction on the property due to any environmental concerns.
- Indicated that items on the property during the site visit would be recycled or disposed properly.
- Observations:
 - Four buildings.
 - Tools and recyclable materials interior; light fixtures; gas cylinders; fluorescent lights.
 - Multiple containers onsite interior and exterior, empty, full, and partially full; some with unidentifiable contents:
 - o Possible pesticide.
 - o Used oil.
 - o Hydraulic fluid.
 - o Possible gasoline
 - o Paint, lacquer, stain, and other related products.
 - Small scattered debris including glass, pieces of car parts on lot; some embedded in surface soil.
 - Piles of asphalt and rock.
 - Small exterior soil stain.
 - Surface drainage away from property is NE.
 - There is a storm sewer inlet at the street curb; SW corner of property.

City of Lawrence Fire Department Administrative Secretary: Jeanette Reiling, 785-830-7000 (09/10/13 by Brooke Evans)

- Has worked with the Fire Department for 11 years
- Noted that this property has received complaints from nearby residents for noise and odor from onsite activities; history has been documented in Lawrence Journal World.
- Two outside rubbish fire calls: 04/26/07 & 01/02/09
- One call cancelled by another party as a false alarm: 06/19/10
- One odor of smoke call, nothing found: 01/28/11
- One passenger car fire on a nearby street: 01/02/09
- One hazardous materials call when a truck on a nearby street spilled an unknown liquid, upon investigation nothing was found. It turned out to be water that was used to cool off metal that had recently been cut and was very hot. The driver of the truck had a load of scrap metal and was refused by the 12th and Haskell Bargain Center because the metal was too hot: 01/27/12

City of Lawrence Director of Planning & Development Services: Scott McCullough, 785-832-3154 (09/24/13 by Brooke Evans)

- Many complaints from residents in the neighborhood about noise and odor
- Could recall no issues/complaints on file about the previous salvage operation
- Only issue of concern to the City of Lawrence was the property setting in the floodplain

KDHE Waste Management Program: Thomas Hayes, 785-842-4600 (09/20/13 by Brooke Evans)

- Many complaints from residents in the neighborhood about noise and odor
- Mr. Hayes conducted many of the investigation of the subject property
- Mr. Hayes filed the Emergency Order ceasing activities at the subject property in 2010
